RUBEN JUAREZ,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 2:07-cv-56

v.

Honorable Gordon J. Quist

PATRICIA CARUSO, et al.,

Defendants.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This is a civil rights action brought by a state prisoner pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The Court has granted Plaintiff leave to proceed in forma pauperis. On May 2, 2007, this Court ordered service of Plaintiff's complaint on Defendants. On July 5, 2007, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss, asserting that Plaintiff failed to exhaust his administrative remedies (docket #9). However, because Defendants have asked that the Court consider evidentiary materials beyond the pleadings, the standards applicable to summary judgment apply. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b). Plaintiff filed a response (docket #12) and an affidavit (docket #13) on July 20, 2007. Upon review, I recommend that Defendants' motion for summary judgment be granted with regard to Defendants Caruso, Fett, White, Quigley and Corcoran and denied with regard to Defendant Spickerman.

Applicable Standard

Summary judgment is appropriate when the record reveals that there are no genuine issues as to any material fact in dispute and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. FED. R. CIV. P. 56(c); Kocak v. Comty. Health Partners of Ohio, Inc., 400 F.3d 466, 468 (6th Cir.), cert. denied, 126 S. Ct. 650 (2005); Thomas v. City of Chattanooga, 398 F.3d 426, 429 (6th Cir.), cert. denied, 126 S. Ct. 338 (2005). The standard for determining whether summary judgment is appropriate is “whether the evidence presents a sufficient disagreement to require submission to a jury or whether it is so one-sided that one party must prevail as a matter of law.” State Farm Fire & Cas. Co. v. McGowan, 421 F.3d 433, 436 (6th Cir. 2005) (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 251-52 (1986)); see also Tucker v. Union of Needletrades Indus. & Textile Employees, 407 F.3d 784, 787 (6th Cir. 2005). The court must consider all pleadings, depositions, affidavits, and admissions on file, and draw all justifiable inferences in favor of the party opposing the motion. See Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co., Ltd. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 587 (1986); Twin City Fire Ins. Co. v. Adkins, 400 F.3d 293, 296 (6th Cir. 2005).

A prisoner’s failure to exhaust his administrative remedies is an affirmative defense for which Defendants have the burden to plead and prove. Jones v. Bock, 127 S. Ct. 910, 919-21 (2007). A moving party without the burden of proof needs only show that the opponent cannot sustain his burden at trial. See Morris v. Oldham County Fiscal Court, 201 F.3d 784, 787 (6th Cir. 2000); see also Minadeo v. ICI Paints, 398 F.3d 751, 761 (6th Cir. 2005). A moving party with the burden of proof faces a “substantially higher hurdle.” Arnett v. Myers, 281 F.3d 552, 561 (6th Cir. 2002); Cockrel v. Shelby County Sch. Dist., 270 F.3d 1036, 1056 (6th Cir. 2001). “Where the moving party has the burden -- the plaintiff on a claim for relief of the defendant on an affirmative defense -- his showing must be sufficient for the court to hold that no reasonable trier of fact could find other than for the moving party.” Calderone v. United States, 799 F.2d 254, 259 (6th Cir. 1986) (quoting W. SCHWARZER, Summary Judgment Under the Federal Rules: Defining Genuine Issues of Material Fact, 99 F.R.D. 465, 487-88 (1984)). The United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit repeatedly has emphasized that the party with the burden of proof “must show the record contains evidence satisfying the burden of persuasion and that the evidence is so powerful that no reasonable jury would be free to disbelieve it.” Arnett, 281 F.3d at 561 (quoting 11 JAMES WILLIAM MOORE, ET AL., MOORE’S FEDERAL PRACTICE § 56.13[1], at 56-138 (3d ed. 2000); Cockrel, 270 F.2d at 1056 (same). Accordingly, a summary judgment in favor of the party with the burden of persuasion “is inappropriate when the evidence is susceptible of different interpretations or inferences by the trier of fact.” Hunt v. Cromartie, 526 U.S. 541, 553 (1999).

Facts

Plaintiff is presently incarcerated at the Ojibway Correctional Facility (OCF). In his pro se complaint, he sues Defendants Patricia Caruso, Psychological Examiner Brent Fett, Warden Jeff White, Deputy Warden Daniel Quigley, School Principal Kim Corcoran, and School Teacher S. Spickerman. Plaintiff is asserting that Defendants violated the ADA by denying him extended GED test time despite the fact that he has a recognized disability of ADHD. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, as well as equitable relief.

Discussion

Defendants claim that they are entitled to summary judgment because Plaintiff failed to exhaust his available administrative remedies. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), a prisoner bringing an action with respect to prison conditions under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 must exhaust his available administrative remedies. See Porter v. Nussle, 534 U.S. 516, 532 (2002); Booth v. Churner, 532 U.S. 731, 733 (2001). A prisoner must exhaust available administrative remedies, even if the prisoner may not be able to obtain the specific type of relief he seeks in the state administrative process. See Porter, 534 U.S. at 520; Booth, 532 U.S. at 741; Knuckles El v. Toombs, 215 F.3d 640, 642 (6th Cir. 2000); Freeman v. Francis, 196 F.3d 641, 643 (6th Cir. 1999). In order to properly exhaust administrative remedies, prisoners must complete the administrative review process in accordance with the deadlines and other applicable procedural rules. Jones v. Bock, 127 S. Ct. 910, 922-23 (2007); Woodford v. Ngo, 126 S. Ct. 2378, 2386 (2006). “Compliance with prison grievance procedures, therefore, is all that is required by the PLRA to ‘properly exhaust.’” Jones, 127 S. Ct. at 922-23.

MDOC Policy Directive 03.02.130 (effective Dec. 19, 2003)<sup>1</sup>, sets forth the applicable grievance procedures for prisoners in MDOC custody at the time relevant to this complaint. Inmates must first attempt to resolve a problem orally within two business days of becoming aware of the grievable issue, unless prevented by circumstances beyond his or her control. Id. at ¶ R. If oral resolution is unsuccessful, the inmate may proceed to Step I of the grievance process and submit a completed grievance form within five business days of the attempted oral resolution. Id. at ¶¶ R, X. The Policy Directive also provides the following directions for completing grievance forms: “The issues shall be stated briefly. Information provided shall be limited to the facts involving the issue being grieved (i.e., who, what, when, where, why, how). Dates, times, places and names of all those involved in the issue being grieved are to be included.” Id. at ¶ T (emphasis in original). The inmate submits the grievance to a designated grievance coordinator, who assigns it to a respondent. Id. at ¶ Y.

If the inmate is dissatisfied with the Step I response, or does not receive a timely response, he may appeal to Step II by obtaining an appeal form within five business days of the response, or if no response was received, within five days after the response was due. Id. at ¶¶ R, DD. The respondent at Step II is designated by the policy, e.g., the regional health administrator for a medical care grievances. Id. at ¶ FF. If the inmate is still dissatisfied with the Step II response, or does not receive a timely Step II response, he may appeal to Step III using the same appeal form. Id. at ¶¶ R, HH. The Step III form shall be sent within ten business days after receiving the Step II response, or if no Step II response was received, within ten business days after the date the Step II response was due. Id. at ¶ HH. The Prisoner Affairs Section is the respondent for Step III grievances on behalf of the MDOC director. Id. at ¶ II. Time limitations shall be adhered to by the inmate and staff at all steps of the grievance process. Id. at ¶ U. “The total grievance process from the point of filing a Step I grievance to providing a Step III response shall be completed within 90 calendar days unless an extension has been approved . . . .” Id.

In addition, the grievance policy provides that, where the grievance alleges staff brutality or corruption, the grievance may be submitted directly to Step III. Id. at ¶S. In such instances, the grievance must be filed within the time limits prescribed for filing grievances at Step I. Id.

Defendants claim that Plaintiff failed to raise his ADA claim in his step I grievance. In Plaintiff’s step I grievance on grievance number OCF-06-06-00605-17A, which is attached to Defendants’ brief, Plaintiff claims that he was treated unfairly by Defendant Spickerman and that he was entitled to protection from discrimination on the basis of his race, religion, ethnic background, sex, national origin, or handicap. As noted above, information provided in a grievance shall be limited to the facts involving the issue being grieved, Plaintiff need not set forth specific legal theories in his grievance in order to have exhausted. However, a review of this grievance reveals that Plaintiff failed to name any of the Defendants other than Defendant Spickerman. Therefore, this grievance does not serve to exhaust Plaintiff’s claims against Defendants Caruso, Fett, White, Quigley and Corcoran.

In Plaintiff's response and affidavit, he states that he filed grievance number OCF-060-600-586-28c in which he specifically asserted a violation of the ADA. However, this grievance was rejected because it contained multiple issues. Plaintiff did not appeal this rejection to step II or III. Moreover, this grievance does not name Defendants Caruso, Fett, White, Quigley, or Corcoran. Therefore, this grievance does not serve to exhaust Plaintiff's claims against Defendants Caruso, Fett, White, Quigley, or Corcoran.

Defendants attach a copy of a grievance inquiry on Plaintiff to their brief in support of the motion for summary judgment which shows that Plaintiff did not properly file any other grievances after he June 9, 2006, when he filed grievance number OCF-06-06-00605-17A. Therefore, the undersigned concludes that Defendants have met their burden of showing that Plaintiff failed to exhaust his administrative remedies against Defendants Caruso, Fett, White, Quigley, and Corcoran.

Recommended Disposition

For the foregoing reasons, I recommend that Defendants' motion for summary judgment (docket #9) be granted with regard to Defendants Caruso, Fett, White, Quigley and Corcoran and denied with regard to Defendant Spickerman.
